Subject: Information of Vacancy of a professorship at the University of Applied Sciences
Potsdam, Germany

Dear Members,

This information just came to our attention. Please feel free to spread it among all that may be interested:

"Dear Sir/Madam,

As the professor for Conservation and Restoration of Murals at the University of Applied Sciences in Potsdam, Germany, is going to retire next year, we are seeking to appoint a successor to fill this position.

Of course we would like to reach as many eligible candidates as possible and therefore would be very grateful if you could distribute the attached advertisement in your circles and publish it in the respective sections of your website.

Many thanks in advance.

Yours sincerely

Jörg Freitag
